Europe in a Box

1. Create a cereal box showing the culture of your chosen country.
2. Bring in an empty cereal box and choose one country from Europe.
3. Use drawings, photos from magazines, and other visual aids to design your box.
4. On the front panel of the box, show a map of the country and visuals of the land.
5. Back panel should show photos of the people of that country.
6. Side panels, create charts and graphs to illustrate the economy.
7. Box top should list statistics about the country.
8. The name of the cereal should reflect the country's name or part of its culture—Ukraine Krispies, Londonberry Loops, etc.
9. Three items should be placed inside the box to represent the land, the people, and the economy. (for example, a wool scarf to represent sheep raising.)
10. Now create a 30-second commercial to advertise their “cereal”.
